

New Plainville Rd.

Tarkiln Hill Rd to Shawmut Ave.

PVH 2164

| PART                          | MATERIAL, THICKNESS AND BINDER |              |                   |                     | SEAL COAT        |                                                                   | YEAR | REMARKS                             |
|-------------------------------|--------------------------------|--------------|-------------------|---------------------|------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|------|-------------------------------------|
|                               | BASE                           |              | TOP               |                     | KIND             | FROM                                                              |      |                                     |
| Center of Street.24' wide | Gravel base                    |              |                   | 1 1/2 gals.         | 7/8 gal. Asphalt | Built under supervision of State by Contractors Henley & Lundgren | 1944 | Federal Aid                         |
| 24' wide                      | Cr. Stone 3/4"                 | Sand Filler  | Cr. Stone 2 1/2"  | Asphalt             |                  |                                                                   |      |                                     |
| 24' wide                      |                                |              | BIT. MAC'D        |                     | SEAL             | CITY                                                              | 1959 |                                     |
| New Plainville Road           |                                |              | Tarkiln Hill Road |                     |                  | to Leboeuf St. only                                               |      | see next line                       |
| 24' wide                      | leveling                       | 1" S" course | 1/4"              | bitum. conc.        |                  | Tilcon-Mass                                                       | 1993 | State Reimbursement "Force Account" |
| New Plainville Road           |                                |              | Leboeuf St        |                     |                  | to Shawmut Ave. only                                              |      | see next line                       |
| 24' wide                      | leveling                       | course       | 1/4"              | bituminous concrete |                  | Tilcon-Mass                                                       | 1995 | Chapter 90 Force Account            |

