The following is a summary of the findings of the audit of the City of New Bedford for the year ended December 31, 1976. The audit was conducted by the Office of the Auditor, City of New Bedford, and was performed in accordance with the standards of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The audit was limited to a review of the financial statements and did not include an examination of the internal controls of the City. The results of the audit are as follows:

The financial statements of the City of New Bedford for the year ended December 31, 1976, were found to be fairly presented in all material aspects. The City's financial position at the end of the year was strong, with a surplus of $1,000,000. The City's operating expenses were within budget, and the City's revenue was sufficient to cover its operating expenses. The City's financial statements were prepared in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.
