NEW BEDFORD, MASS.,

June 24 1919

WE, the undersigned owners of property abutting on

Almy St at Acushnet Ave

..... hereby agree that in case water pipes are laid by the city of New Bedford in said

Almy street said city, and all persons acting in its behalf, shall be holden free from all claims for trespass, or damage, or otherwise, by reason of laying said pipe, and the authorized agents of said city shall be allowed by us free access to said Almy street and all necessary uses thereof, at any and all times, for the purposes of repairs, extension, inspection, or otherwise, and to make all excavation thereof, and generally said city is to have all rights of uses respecting said Almy street incidental to Water administration, as if said Almy street was a public street; and it is further agreed that the City of New Bedford, by laying of the aforesaid water main, shall in no way become liable, or bound to accept, or keep in repair said Almy street
