A hand-drawn map on a white background. At the top, a horizontal line represents a road, with a wavy line above it indicating a boundary or terrain. Below this road, the text "Liberia Ln." is written in a cursive, handwritten style. Further down, a second horizontal line is drawn, with a short vertical line segment intersecting it from above. To the right of this intersection, the text "#35" is written. On the far right of the second horizontal line, a small circle is drawn, from which a diagonal line extends downwards and to the right, crossing the bottom of the frame.
